

OYSTER BAY GUARDIA

Since 1899

VOL. 112 NO. 46

Serving: Bayville, the Brookvilles, Centre Island, Cold Spring Harbor, Cove Neck, East Norwich, Lattingtown, Laurel Hollow, Locust Valley, Matinecock, Mill Neck, Muttontown, Oyster Bay, Oyster Bay Cove, Syosset & Woodbury

OBRM HOLDS "HOLIDAY EXPRESS" WEEKEND

SNOUDER'S FOUNDATION

After Oyster Bay's oldest business, Snouder's Corner Drug Store closed its doors last week, a group of concerned citizens formed Snouder's Corner Drug Store Foundation in an effort to preserve one of the hamlet's historical landmarks. This effort was launched online at www.snouders.org.

The Foundation's mission statement is to "promote, foster and advance interest in the preservation of Snouder's Corner Drug Store, and ultimately to prevent the building - and a living legacy of this town's great history - from being destroyed." Their goals are to preserve the Snouder's building from "a community and aesthetic perspective, to disseminate information to inform the general public regarding the future of this local landmark and to encourage the

(From left) Meghan Murray, 7, of Bayville enjoys the model train display with her mom Karen Murray and Oyster Bay Railroad Museum President John Specce at the OBRM's Preview Center on Saturday, December 10th during their annual "Holiday Express" event.

All Aboard OB Railroad Museum's "Holiday Express"

Free horse & carriage rides were given throughout the hamlet of Oyster Bay on Saturday December 10th as part of the Oyster Bay Railroad Museum's "Holiday Express."